STRIKERS BOLDER NOW THAT SMALL IS TURNED DOWN

Hold Union Feuds Responsible tor Failure of Telegraphers to Win Fight.

TWO ARRESTS TO-DAY

Main Offices of Both Companies Thoroughly Picketed -Small in Own Defense.

The foul among the officers of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union, which began before the strike was declared and has culminated in the suspension of President Small by the General Executive Board, is held by the rank and He to be responsible for the failure of e struggle for higher wages and the adjustment of other grievances. There s a determination on the part of the ighters in the union to see the struggle through to the end, and two of them were arrested to-day for creating a disturbance in front of the Western Union

"We intend to keep up the fight," said ne of the leaders in the local unlon to-day, "and many of us have not lost hope of securing concessions from the President Small was suspended by S J. Konenkamp, N. J. Reldy and J. H. Sullivan, of the General Executive Board, last night after a stormy meeting of Local No. 16 in Clinton Hall. Small, who was against the strike in was overridden by the officers of the various locals, made a speech advising he men to carefully consider the situation before casting a vote on the proposition of continuing the strike. Unanimous to Keep It Up.

the vote was unanknously in favor up the struggle. At the same hour locals in the large cities were meeting all over the country, and with very few exceptions followed the lead of New York. It was decided then that the Commercial Telegraphers' Union had suffered through Small's management and he was accordingly deposed.

President Small left his quarters in the Astor House early to-lay, and teleg-raphers who called to see him were unable to learn where he had gone. The headquarters of Local 16 was open

A crowd of about 150 operators, sever of them women, gathered in City Hall Park at 5 o'clock and marched across hey cheered for Dan Russell and Percy homas, who have been active in forcing the local fight, and hooted and jeered at the operators going to work. Then they moved down Broadway to the Western Union Building, where they shouted "Scab" to the operators going their old employees as has been unpopular. With the local union since before the strike was declared, attempted to justify his conduct at yesterday afternoon's meeting. He was coldy received at first, and finally openly insulted by members, who shouted accusations of treason at him.

Willing to Forgive Her If She Can Prove She Is Not a Bigamist.

William H. Lasher, the venerable 335 - Facts to Back Lip Speech sistant postmaster of the State Senate. arrived in Brooklyn to-day with Constable Newton; of Griffon's Corner, The constable bore a warrant charging Mr. aton Henry Cabot Lodge appeared be-Lasher's third wife, Etta-daughter of fore the Suffilk County Grand Jury to his second wife, with bigamy, She was day, having been summoned by Dis-his second wife—with bigamy. She was arrested last Safurday and released under $100 ball. The aged, but still hale and hearty husband is willing to forgive her if she disproves the fet that she has shother husband living.

"Etta's statement that I am seventy-five years old is false," said Mr. Lasher.
"Likewise is it false that she is my fifth wife. She is only the third. Her mother was the second. Also there is no truth in her declaration that I forced her to marry me at the point of a gun. I never had to use a gun to urge any woman to marry me. It would be more likely that I had to use a gun to-keep them from wanting to marry me."

Mr. Lasher drew himself up to 8 leet and expanded his chest four inches. "As a matter of fact" he ran an 'Etta was wild to marry me. Her mother died last March and I took her up to Griffin Corners. I put her in a fashionable boardinghouse and paid her board. Early in June she came to me and said: "You must marry me. If you do not people will talk" I smiled quietly and recalled that her mother been dead only a few months Then she threatened to leave me and do that I consented to marry her or June 29.
